REMOVE SNOW TIRES
A word of advice to those planning to run their snow tires through the summer: Don't. The heat build-up in these extra-heavy, deep-treaded tires at sustained high speeds in warm weather reduce mileage life and could cause sudden tire disablement.
Store your snow tires in a cool, dry area, away from sunlight and electrical equipment. Place them flat on the floor. It's a good time to remove stones, metal particles and glass from the tread of both your snow tires and from your conventional tires that'll replace them on your car.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my husband FRANK L. CUMBY, who passed away two years ago March 19, 1971.

At twilight when eventide draws near and sunset flames the sky.
I think of you dear Frank and the happy days gone by.
Thoughts of you come drifting back. Within my dreams to stay. To know that you are resting when the twilight ends the day.
By Wife, Alese

Walter Bergman, March 24, 1961

The month of March once more is here,
The saddest of all the year,
For twelve years ago today,
One we loved was taken away.

His weary hours and days of pain,
His troubled nights are past,
But in our aching hearts we know,
He has found sweet rest at last.

Sometimes it's hard to understand
Why some things have to be,
But in his wisdom God has planned
Beyond our power to see -

Our faith holds a brighter day
In that eternal land
Where we shall meet again
And then we will understand
Sadly missed by his wife and daughters. 3-22-1t

TAKE NOTICE, that the undersigned, Otha A. Godsey, will on the first day of August, 1973, at 10:00 a.m. on said date apply to the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Appomattox County, Virginia, at her office in Appomattox, Virginia, for a tax deed conveying to him that certain tract of land containing approximately four acres, be it more or less, situated in the Southside Magisterial District of Appomattox County, Virginia, fronting on the old Bent Creek to Red House Road, about one mile southwest of Appomattox, Virginia, adjoining the lands of James R. Ford, Harry T. Ferguson, Jr., and others, unless the taxes are paid to him and the costs of this proceeding are paid before that date.

The undersigned, Otha A. Godsey, having purchased said land from the Treasurer of Appomattox County, Virginia, at a delinquent tax sale on December 9, 1963, at Appomatiox, Virginia, at the Courthouse thereof for the taxes for the year 1961 on said land in the amount of $4.08, which said sale was duly reported and confirmed by the Circuit Court of Appomattox County, Virginia, and ordered to be recorded. The undersigned has since paid all taxes assessed against said tract of land and entitled to reimbursement for same with interest from the dates of payment, which amount, as of this date, is $102.00, plus the cost of this proceeding. The land is assessed in the name of Hattie R. Godsey, deceased.

You are hereby notified that you have the right to redeem the same at any time before the execution of said deed by payment of the above mentioned taxes and costs of this proceeding.
